1. Write a problem for which this is a solution. (It clearly should have the correct units and deal with the material covered in this part of the course.)

2. Write the complete solution to this problem. Briefly explain your logic.